The church is like a chain. It can do its job because it has many links.

Members of the body are linked together by faith in the One who empowers each of them. The mission committee is a crucial link in world evangelism. However, a chain is only as strong as its weakest link.

Missions and evangelism in the Third World—typically based on helping the poor and needy—can be counterproductive. Our Elijah Challenge Coordinator in India wrote us about the ministry of a servant of God we recently came to know there, describing it as follows: “His ministry is giving food, clothing, and basic necessities to the villagers.
