"Colors of Paradise" is a colorful journey on the wings of the sparrows of paradise that takes you around the lands of dreams, love, hope, smiles and tears. It tells you the real story in colors and words of the children around the world, from sad Kurdistan to the Land of the Rising Sun, from the dark Africa to the white Balkans to the place where you hear the heart beats of Tokyo.Simko can tell you the real story of the sad lands that he has been to during his humanitarian missions around the world. In this book he draws artwork with words and writes poems in colors. This is a book of life experiences expressed through art and poetry by Simko Ahmed, a Kurdish born Japanese citizen who has been working with the international humanitarian organization "Peace Winds Japan." Simko currently lives in Tokyo, Japan.

A book about art works , poems and short stories by Simko Ahmed , written in English left to right and Kurdish right to left. Simko said" when I draw the sparrows of paradise, I can feel and see them flying into my room standing, on my stand, singing and chirping, swooping at my paintings. They color themselves with the colors they like, I can see them , feel them, hear them singing while I'm drawing them.I hope they forgive me for the pain I caused them when I was a child.I was not a bad boy. I was lonely. I couldn't grow wings and fly with them to the blue sky. I hunted them with a mouse trap and wanted them to stay in my childhood garden and be my friends so we could play with my mother's roses and daffodils together.This book contains most of my paintings up until 2018 along with my poems and short stories, which are all based on my own real life experiences starting from my sad land Kurdistan and then to the other sad lands such as Kosovo, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Sierra Leone and Liberia and Japan, that I have lived and worked in as a humanitarian aid worker.Simko Ahmed2018

Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh is a prolific author, poet, teacher, scholar and peace activist. Yet he is also a master calligrapher, distilling ancient Buddhist teachings into simple phrases that resonate with our modern times, capturing and expressing his lifetime of meditative insight, peace and compassion. This book offers a rare opportunity to spend time in the presence of his beautiful creations. For Thich Nhat Hanh, creating calligraphy is more than creating art - it is also a meditative practice. He is fully present for every moment, from drinking his tea, to sitting down and taking a brush, and using the tea to make the ink. Each calligraphy is made of mindful sitting, breathing, walking, smiling - and love.
