In their spare time, the Colanders designed and built an oak post-and-beam house on a ridge overlooking the Green Mountains to the east and the Adirondacks to the west. The house is located on the site of a former drive-in movie theater. (They replaced the speaker poles with fruit trees and used the I-beams from the screen as support for the second story of the carriage house and the garage ...

However, the commercialization that McGraw Hill adds in distracts from the book. They put in lot of extras that "tease" you of their online learning platform that you have to pay for. "You can access the explanation or web lesson for this" lead you to pay. I guess it's the same with most books. If you just took the author's word and took out all the other crap that's in the way, you'd end up ...
