No Truth Without Ruth: The Life of Ruth Bader Ginsburg ...

No Truth Without Ruth: The Life of Ruth Bader Ginsburg doesn't shy away from presenting legal issues and court cases to kids, and successfully simplifies them so they're understandable and interesting. It underscores the point that Ginsburg's work and advocacy as a lawyer and judge have changed many laws that directly affect our lives; it's because of her advocacy and fight for fairness that we have many of the legal rights we do today.

'You Can't Spell Truth Without Ruth' - Remembering RBG

"No truth without Ruth" is an oft-repeated line. Back matter includes information on the federal court system, a top 10 list of Ginsburg's Supreme Court opinions, and a list of sources. One quibble: the ending photo of the Supreme Court is of when Ginsburg first joined and features Sandra Day O'Connor and several other retired/deceased judges—why not include a more recent image with Sonia Sotomayor?
