process of listing your home and waiting for a qualified buyer, and you've always wanted to be "rich enough" to help your favorite charity in a big way, your time has come. I Sold My House in a Raffle explains the entire process for homeowners, realtors, and also for the nonprofit director who is open to an innovative fundraising alternative that can provide a sizeable chunk of cash to support the charity. Diane Giraudo McDermott, an advocate of animal rights, couldn't match the incentives building developers were offering home buyers, and buyers interested in her property couldn't qualify for a loan; so she used her marketing background and partnered with a "no-kill" animal shelter and successfully sold her house in a raffle. Inside, you'll learn how to utilize the best marketing techniques, create a winning raffle formula, Aristotle's convincing philosophy is likely to have shaped (even indirectly) many of our current beliefs, prejudices and attitudes to life. This includes the way in which our mind (that is, our capacity to have private thoughts) appears to elude a scientific description. This book is about a scientific ingredient that was not available to Aristotle: the science of information. Would the course of the philosophy of the mind have been different had Aristotle pronounced that the matter of mind was information? This “mind is information” assertion is often heard in contemporary debates, and this book explores the verities and falsehoods of this proposition.

create accounting and control nightmares for school business administrators. This book helps school business officials establish procedures for tracking and controlling student activity funds at the school and district levels. The book also provides an assessment framework for students, activity sponsors, or administrative staff who are performing internal audits. Sample forms and worksheets in every chapter make this practical text a true 'how-to' guide.
