Vintage Shobhaa Dé, with scathing take-offs on everything, from the caste system to male chauvinism, from sex to social pretension . . . in other words, it's all great fun'-Economic Times
Watching the preparations for independent India's 60th birthday in 2007, Dé-poised then to enter her own sixth decade-was struck by the thought, 'Surely my life has taken the same trajectory as the country's!' While she reflected on this, many more questions arose: Does India really deserve to congratulate itself? Has it lived up to the early promises it made to its people? Does Dé herself believe in India? In Superstar India, an intimate confession to her readers, Dé answers these questions and discovers a jawan-young-India, ready to find its place in today's world. Witty, passionate and gloriously opinionated, Superstar India celebrates the spirit of a nation that is certainly not about to lose its glow.

This volume represents a collection of life histories of women who live in rural Haryana. It looks at the impact of the 73rd Amendment to India's constitution, which introduced reservations in the political arena for women. The Panchayati Raj Act of 1992 reserved one third of all Sarpanch positions for women, and granted constitutional status to the Panchayat system, outlining its specific functions and jurisdiction. This book enhances existing scholarship on the impact of these changes in that it provides the opportunity for women Sarpanches from Haryana to speak for themselves and reflect upon their journey. Ten elected women Sarpanches share their stories about their lives, from childhood to adolescence to adulthood. Their life histories address the following questions: Who are these women who agreed to run for a reserved seat in the elections? What motivated them? Why were they asked to run? What barriers do they face? Do they feel they are making a difference? Indeed, these stories reflect the lived realities of the women impacted by the changes in legislation.

Writing and spreading positivity is like paying gratitude to the Almighty. I'd like to express my gratitude to my parents who con tinue to bless me to be a better human being, to my educational background, to my gurus to for their guidance, to my community who allowed me to be responsible and last but not the least, to my country whom I'm always proud of. Gratitude to all people who inspired me and encouraged me and made me what I am today. - Author

The Diary of Festivities aims at collaborating the different festivals of the country and penning it down by different writers. It also brings out joy, and love, and the bond between people.

Chale jo do kadam saath woh, (As she ambles the aisle with me)
To unke saath se Pyaar ho jaye, (May I be enmeshed in her companionship forever)
Thaame jo Pyaar se mera haath woh, (As she seizes my hand with tender love)
To apne hi haath se Pyaar ho jaye, (May I be ensnared by the charm of my own hand)
Hota hai agar itna khoobsurat yeh Pyaar, (If love is so alluring and prepossessing)
To aye Khuda unhe bhi mere Pyaar se Pyaar ho jaye! (Oh omniscient being! May she be enchanted by my love)
It was 5 in the morning when I blinked open an eye to wake up. I was in deep sleep till some time ago, and it felt as if someone had lovingly caressed my hair. But when I opened my eyes, there was no one there. For a few precious moments, I felt the sensation of that loving touch that I had experienced since childhood. It seemed as if that sensation was all around me. Now that presence was close to me; my Radha in the form of Annu was in my life. Divine Love of Two Souls is a story of those emotions that this generation has perhaps lost along the way.
